MEMORANDUM FOR: ARMY ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, SECURITY CONTROL SECTION
JOINT INTELLIGENCE GROUP, JIG

SUBJECT: Soviet-Communist Capabilities for Sabotage in 62 Listed Countries.

REFERENCE:

- (1) JIGM-96 of 8 March 1949 ← SI has.
- (2) IM-144 of 12 March 1949
- (3) Record of meeting of JIG, CIA, and Service → SI has.
representatives, 26 April 1949

1. On the basis of a report from the CIA representative, prepared in response to Reference (3) and informally discussed and agreed by the representatives of the Service Agencies, it is necessary to conclude that no valid basis exists for attempting to reach a joint-agreed text in connection with the request made by Reference (1)

2. It is understood, however, that the basic problem involved is a significant and pressing one. Reference (2) is accordingly submitted for such use as JIG may have for it in connection with JIG 447/M; but it is pointed out that in no sense can Reference (2) be considered an inter-agency coordinated and agreed paper.

3. Note is taken of the fact that JIG is under pressure of time and does not wish to present a request to CIA for a new study of a reformulated problem.
